The Best Way to Cheer Up,

If you are a despondent invalid, is to grow stronger. This you can do if you will take a piece of advice which has the weight of high medical authority to back it. That is to use the standard invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, specially commended and indorsed by physicians. Among the bodily troubles which it overcomes are dyspepsia, irregularity of the bowels, liver complaint, general debility and nervous complaints. It is also found very useful in counteracting a tendency to weakness or disorder of the kidneys and bladder, and persons troubled with rheumatism strongly indorse it as a remedy. Its influence upon the entire system is highly beneficial, promoting as it does the return of sleep and appetite, and the acquisition of flesh and strength. A silent reproof of the folly of narcotic drug medication is conveyed in the success of this pleasant and effective botanical medicine.

Nevada Theater.

The Silver State Minstrels will make their first appearance to-morrow night, upon which occasion they will offer new novelties, and introduce an entirely new selection of acts, etc. from the gems of Ethiopian minstrelcy, and the following members will appear: C. M Hudson, C. F. Cook, J. M. White, E. R. Parks, Bennie Barnett, Joe Dillman, J. E. Stanway, Seymour Lake, F. C. Updike, Robert Wills, Prof. Kauffman, leader of orchestra and brass band. Witness the choice gems selected from their repertoire of "features d'novelties," as presented in the following programme:

PART FIRST—ETHIOPIAN SOIREE:

C. M. Hudson, Bones, J. M. White, Interlocutor, C. F. Cook, Tambo; Overture, Orchestra; ballad, E. R. Parks; comic ditty, C. F. Cook; ballad, J. E. Stanaway; "When I'm Gone," C. M. Hudson; ballad, J. M. White; finale, company.

PART SECOND:

Overture, Orchestra; duett, White and Parks; piano solo, Bennie Barnett; stump speech, Joe Dillman.

PART THIRD—BURLESQUES'

The original "Black Statue"—Mr. Squinchem, Seymour Lake; Mrs. Squinchem, Joe Dillman; Miss Rosa, C. F. Cook; Jake, C. M. Hudson; Pete, J. M. White; Dr. Pillgarlic, E. R. Parks; Character song, E. R. Parks. The whole to conclude with "Engaging Talent." In which the entire company will appear, introducing a Grand Walk Around. Admission fifty cents. Reserved seats can be obtained at the Theatre Cigar Stand without extra charge. Doors open at 7 o'clock, performance to commence at 8.

The New Time Table.

According to the Sacramento Record-Union the new time table has not yet been made out, but it may be stated as a probability that the overland trains will leave San Francisco about half past 9 A. M., instead of 8, as at present, and that the west-bound overland will reach the city at a considerably earlier hour than it now does, possibly not much after noon. The negotiations pending for some time past with the Union Pacific with a view of materially shortening the time between San Francisco and New York are hardly likely to result in much improvement in that respect, and the principal difference will be made simply in the gain of about three hours at this end of the line.

Prisoners Escaped.

Last Sunday evening five prisoners escaped from the Storey county jail. They were "Red Mike," held for murder; Mark Brown, for horse stealing; Lafferty, Rosenbaugh and Klein for burglary. A hole was dug through the wall with a piece of gas pipe wrenched from an iron bedstead. Telegrams have been sent in all directions and a reward of $100 offered for the arrest of each of them. The jail is denounced as a very weak affair. The vags, fifteen in number, were too well content to leave their comfortable lodgings for the inhospitable world and did not go.

Roll of Honor.

Report of Brown's school for the month ending Nov. 21st, was as follows: Number enrolled 23. Average daily attendance 21. Roll of honor: Albert Brown, 96; Dora Clow, 98; Laura Brown, 99; Mary Clow, 95; Charlie Crown, 92; Grace Clow, 96; Letta Howard, 95; Julia Clow, 94; Bennie Howard, 92; Wm. Barney, 90; Charles Gilchrist, 94; Wm. Harden, 92; James Gilchrist, 96; Lucy Barney, 90.

LOTTIE C. WARREN, Teacher.

From Paradise.

Gen. Clark came in from Paradise last Saturday night, bringing with him two large pieces of ore from the Bullion mine, showing rbey and native silver plainly. The specimens will be sent to New York. Mr. Clarke informs us that the Bullion is about to add five more stamps to its mill.

New Location.

Jones, Kinkead and Leete have just located a claim between the J. & K. mine and the Crown Prince, which they think will prove a good piece of mining property. In tracing the lines of the two mines they found this piece had not been taken up, and made haste to locate it. It has been named the J. K. L.

Winter's Ice.

The Crystal Ice Co. are making preparations to put up their Winter's crop of ice. Their building above Verdi is being enlarged, and their pond put in first-class condition. "Old ice-hooks, shingles and things," was in town yesterday and told us he expected to harvest four thousand tons.

Money from Humboldt.

Washoe has had her first lot of Humboldt county warrants cashed. The amount, principal and interest, was $1,111. We still have $3,203, which we will have to keep for awhile.

Our thanks are due the Mechanics' Union of Storey county for a complimentary ticket to their Second Annual Ball to be held in National Guard Hall on Wednesday, December 10th.

Sudden Illness.

Mrs. Nels. Hammond was taken ill very suddenly night before last, and has been in spasms most of the time since. Drs. Dawson, Bishop and Bergman, have been in constant attendance upon her, but have looked for the worst from the first. She was thought to be a little better last evening, and we hope may be spared for many years to come.

Still Rising.

Everyday some one of our merchants receives notice from his San Francisco dealer that the price of certain articles has still further advanced.

Granted.

Judge King, after hearing the evidence last Saturday night, granted Mrs. Nolin a divorce from her husband, on the ground of extreme cruelty.

Rev. J. Blanchard, D. D., President of Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., and editor of The Christian Cynosure of Chicago, is expected to arrive on the lightning this morning. He is accompanied by his wife. They have been on a visit to California, and are now en route for home, but will stop for a few days to see his former students, Orvis Ring and Mrs. W. H. Tredway.

At the meeting of the M. E. Church Quarterly Conference held last night, the pastor's salary was fixed at $1500. This is considerably more than ever paid by this church, but with Mr. McKelvey the church expects to find no particular trouble to raise that sum.

Justice levies a 50-cent assessment.

The Reno weekly JOURNAL has passed its first decade, and entered upon its eleventh year and volume. It is well conducted, readable and attractive, and at its reduced rate of only $2 50 per year, has a strong hold upon the Reno people, and is fully entitled to the liberal support it receives.—[Susanville Advocate.

"Been having your boots half soled?" asked Tom. "Well, yes," said Ben, who is looking a little seedy; but they're not half s'old as my hat." And it was three o'clock the next afternoon before Tom understood just what he meant by it.

The Reno JOURNAL, one of the institutions of Washoe, has commenced a new volume under favorable circumstances.—[Elko Post.

The Reno JOURNAL, in its eleventh volume, is a very excellent newspaper.—[Virginia Enterprise.

There are many men who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause which is the second stage of seminal weakness.
